

Bits 'n Pieces

Send us Bits 'n Pieces

Each month N magazine uses these short and informative pieces. We rely on you to contribute a picture and short text. You are on the front-lines of community activity and N magazine is your resource. Send to nproduction@surewest.net and use N Bits in the subject line.

Where in Natomas

This sculpture sits somewhere in Natomas. Identify it and receive a $20 gift certificate to Anthony's Italian Cuisine. Send to: whereinnatomas@nmag.net. The winner will be notified by e-mail.

Student Illustrators Honored

Inderkum High School Students, Leah Abucayan and Haylee Saelor, are shown with Inderkum principal Mr. Tapanas and Michelle

Townsend, digital photo teacher at the awards ceremony honoring their illustrated children stories for the Department of Agriculture.

Let's Talk Turkey

Natomas Charter School students, Jordan Pittman, Eric Klenner, Milan Prince and Samantha Watkins are among a group of charter students visiting Turkey until April 28th. Their story will be in the N magazine June issue. The trip is being led by Ting Sun, founder of the Charter School.

Cycling Clinic at the North Natomas Library

Chis Ewers of Sacramento Area Bicycle Advocates is shown with Sarah Janus of the NNTMA at the clinic held at the North Natomas Library.

The clinic was sponsored by the NNTMA to introduce riders to guidelines they should follow to make their cycling experience safer and more enjoyable.

www.nntma.org

High Water Along the Sacramento River

The Sacramento River was in the basements of some homes along the river. This house at San Juan and Garden Highway is on posts, but the storage area under the house was about to get a some of the river for company.

Be sure that your flood insurance is up to date as there are till some rainy days ahead.

safca.org